• Partnership for 21st Century Skills (P21)

– The Goddard School is the first early childhood program to become a member
– The Goddard School’s relationship with P21 puts us in the middle of the conversation with businesses, educational leaders and policymakers—focusing on the skills and needs for where our children are headed.
– F.L.EX.℠ Learning Program integrated with the P21 Framework emphasizes mastery of developmentally appropriate core subject material through encouragement of critical thinking, problem solving, communication, collaboration, creativity and innovation.
Educational Advisory Board (EAB)

– An accomplished group of educators, researchers and experts in child development, early learning, technology integration, brain development, parent engagement and health and nutrition.

– The focus of the EAB is to help The Goddard School continually evaluate our curriculum, while also supporting parent engagement and professional development.
