Assumption of Risk for Participation in Recreational Activities

Many recreational activities involve substantial risks of bodily injury, property damage, and other dangers associated with participating in such activities. Dangers peculiar to activities normally engaged in include but are not limited to: hypothermia, broken bones, strains, bruises, drowning, concussion, and heart attack. Each participant in these activities should realize that there are risks, hazards, and dangers inherent in such activities and in the preparation for and travel to and from such activities.

Each participant in recreational activities must be covered by an accident and health insurance policy. It is the responsibility of each participant to participate only in those activities for which he/she has the prerequisite skills, qualifications, preparations, and training. The University does not warrant or guarantee in any respect the competency or mental or physical condition of any instructor, trip leader, vehicle driver, or individual participant in any recreational activity. The University also does not warrant or guarantee in any respect the physical condition of any of the equipment used in connection with the activity.

Therefore, in consideration of the benefits received from the recreational program, the undersigned assumes all risks of damages or injury, including death, that may be sustained by him/her while participating in a recreational activity or in travel to or from such activity.

Release, Covenant Not to Sue and Waiver

The activities involve an inherent risk of physical injury and the undersigned assumes all such risks. The undersigned hereby agrees that for the sole consideration of Emory's allowing the undersigned to participate in recreational programs or activities for which or in connection with which Emory has made available any equipment, facilities, grounds, or personnel for such programs or activities, the undersigned does hereby release, covenant not to sue and forever discharge Emory and its trustees, officers, agents and employees of any and from all claims, demands, rights, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature including but not limited to negligence, unforeseen bodily and personal injuries, damage to property, and the consequences thereof resulting from participation in any way connected with such recreational programs and activities. I understand that this Release, Covenant Not to Sue, Waiver, and Assumption of Risk shall be effective from 5/17/2019 through 5/19/2019. By signing this document, I hereby acknowledge that I have read the above carefully before signing, and agree to comply with all the above this 17th day of May, 2019.
